DUNANT 2010
HEIDEN

youth

Do you want to make a difference? Do you want to strengthen your society and change your community?

Then join the international youth meeting on Humanity and Peace!

It will be held in Heiden, Switzerland, the place where Henry Dunant lived out his last years and died 100 years ago. Together with 100 young people from more than 25 countries all around the world, you will be able to follow in the footsteps of Henry Dunant for more Humanity and Peace.

The youth meeting gives you the opportunity to:

- share and discuss your experiences of humanitarian projects, values and youth volunteer work
- improve your knowledge of humanity and peace-related topics and activities
- get to know Red Cross/Red Crescent volunteers from all over the world as well as from Switzerland
- have fun and enjoy discovering a beautiful part of Switzerland and its inhabitants, where Henry Dunant lived at the end of his life.

During the youth meeting you will attend one of the following workshops:

RAID CROSS:

Role play on International Humanitarian Law. Become a leader of the session and learn how to implement the IHL.

BE AN AGENT OF CHANGE:

Become a living example of the Red Cross Red Crescent Fundamental Principles, promote a culture of peace and respect for diversity, and positively influence mindsets, attitudes and behaviours within your community!

PROJECT MANAGEMENT:

From a vision to a project. Learn how to realize your own vision on humanity.

CHILDREN'S RIGHTS:

Raise your awareness on your rights, empower yourself and get self-confident enough to implement your knowledge among others.

'CHILI':

Training on conflict management, to prevent violence and promote social integration
